1. Introduction

The establishment of an egalitarian social order, free from all forms of discrimination whatsoever, has been a cherished goal enshrined in the Constitution. Special care therefore has been bestowed on the disadvantaged sections of the society, especially the simple Tribal people to enable them to catch up with the rest as early as possible. Accordingly, the Constitution provided a comprehensive framework for the protection

"Education in its real sense is the pursuit of truth. It is an endless journey through knowledge and enlightenment. Such a journey opens up new vistas of development of humanism where there is no scope nor room for pettiness, disharmony, jealousy, hatred or enmity. It transforms a human being into a wholesome whole, a noble soul and an asset to the universe. Real education enhances the dignity of a human being and increases his self-respect. If only the real sense of education could be realized by each individual, and carried forward in every field of human activity the world will be so much a better place to live in."

*Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam
