ANNEXURE I

Policy for Empanelment & Engagement of
State Resource Person & Block Resource Person
under Project TRUPTI

Social Inclusion & Social Development Domain,
Tripura Rural Livelihood Mission (TRLM),
Rural Development Department, Government of Tripura

Need of Resource Person:

The Project TRUPTI aims to develop a pool of capacity building/training delivery professionals, State Resource Persons and Block Resource Persons, proficient in understanding the "graduation approach". These Resource Persons will deliver training and provide ongoing support to selected Pariborton Sakhi. Through resource persons, the focus will be on empowering the Pariborton Sakhi with the skills and knowledge needed to catalyse positive change within the lives of vulnerable communities.

Who is the State Resource Person?

SRPs are professionals of TRLM/ technical partners/ implementing agencies/ NGOs engaged at the state, district and block levels to facilitate the implementation of Project TRUPTI. The SRPs will be engaged to support and provide training to Block Resource Persons who will further provide training to the Pariborton Sakhi.

Role of State Resource Person:

- SRPs are to be involved in finalizing resources for training, limited to venue logistical arrangements, along with food, and printing of IEC materials, etc.
- SRPs should possess in-depth knowledge and expertise in the subject matter they are tasked with training. They must be well-versed in the theories, principles, and best practices relevant to the training topic.
- SRPs are tasked with leading the training sessions, delivering presentations, and building skills to engage participants while ensuring the creation of a positive learning environment during the residential training of Pariborton Sakhi).
- SRPs need to assess the PS's (Pariborton Sakhi) learning progress and evaluate the effectiveness of the training program, including conducting quizzes, tests, feedback through surveys or discussions, and identifying areas for improvement for Block Resource Persons.
- SRPs are expected to focus on continuous learning and development, staying updated on government (Central/State) schemes and entitlements for rural areas, along enhancing their interpersonal skills.
- SRPs should attend all Training of Trainers (ToT) sessions at the state, district, and block levels.
- They should be readily available to travel and accessible via call to their Block Resource Persons.
- SRPs need to understand field implementation and demographic challenges properly.

Who is the Block Resource Person?

Block Resource Persons are existing community cadres who may or may not be engaged as master trainers at the CLF/Nodal VO level or experienced community cadres. They will be engaged under Project TRUPTI for further training of Pariborton Sakhi at the district/block level throughout the project period.

Role of Block Resource Person

- Train the Pariborton Sakhis with the support of State Resource Persons.
- To share their enriching experience and knowledge with the selected Pariborton Sakhi and ensure they understand the concept discussed during the training.
- Provide guidance and support to the Pariborton Sakhis and help them develop training abilities to train the extremely vulnerable families.
- To demonstrate their skills and use their local area examples in training the Pariborton Sakhis for enhanced learning and participation from the trainees.
- To guide and support the Pariborton Sakhis and solve their doubts or connect with some professionals to resolve the same.
- Need to ensure quality during the delivery of training, provide feedback and conduct the monitoring sessions with the Pariborton Sakhis during the training period.
- Supporting the SRPs in evaluating the learning of the participants during and after completion of training.
- Engage themselves in continuous learning – and update on the new Central/State govt. entitlements and provide up-to-date information to the Pariborton Sakhis during the training.

The BRP is a community cadre position and is engaged temporarily by the Community Institutions (CLF/ Nodal VO) as per the need of a specific program/ project. At any point in time, the BRP cannot claim a permanent engagement/ role/ position/ employment in TRLM/ Partner agency/ Implementing agency and any Community Institutions (CLFs/VOs/SHGs).
